

Shareholders,

Just a reminder that window maintenance to the porch windows as well as unit inspections will begin as of May 1st which means Kevin, as well as the building and window committee will be accessing your unit.

Therefore please remember to clear any furniture away from your porch windows, leave hurricane bars where Kevin can find them and make sure a key to your unit (per the PW Bylaws) is left with me or Kevin.

Also, if you have guests coming down, please let me know the dates so that we do not enter your unit at that time.

Thank you,
