Palm Worth has lost another former member of its community. We have been informed that Catherine Durkin, the mother of Karen , and longtime resident of Unit 410, has passed away.

Many of us remember this classy lovely couple, Catherine and John, heading to the beach daily with their umbrella to enjoy the late afternoon sun. They are so much a part of Palm Worth's history that makes this building unique. Our sincere condolences to Karen and David, Unit 410. Though Catherine had a long life, I know she will be missed by her family.
